Sinus bradycardia with slight ST-segment elevation, negative T-wave and Q-wave in lead III, less evident in aVF, with straight ST-segments in V_{2-3} and peaked T-wave. These leads led us to suspect an inferoposterior condition. Right and posterior leads were used, which confirmed our suspicions (Figure).

Figure.